Editorial Review

From Booklist

Following the events of Wither (2011) and Fever (2012), teens Rhine, Linden, and Cecily take to the road in a postapocalyptic America in search of Rhine's twin brother, Rowan, who is busy destroying labs that are researching a cure for the virus that kills people before their twenty-fifth birthdays. But finding Rowan only leads them back into the clutches of Dr. Vaughn Ashby, Linden's driven father, who won't hesitate to kill because of his obsession to be the first to the cure. This concluding volume in the Chemical Garden trilogy regains the plot momentum lost in Fever and includes a few new twists for good measure. The story concludes a bit neatly, but it is still a satisfying ending that balances out and even recasts the rather brutal medical experiments seen in the previous books. Readers definitely need the background, plot, and character information of the first two volumes before they plunge into these deeper waters. HIGH-DEMAND BACKSTORY: DeStefano has already achieved best-seller status with this series, and fans should be further swayed by the dedicated website, videos, and author events forthcoming. Grades 9-12. --Cindy Welch

Review

A "harrowing debut . . . DeStefano has an observant and occasionally pitiless eye, chronicling the cruelties, mercies, and inconsistencies of her young characters. . . . It will be intriguing to see how DeStefano develops [the larger world] as this promising trilogy progresses." (PW, starred review)

"Creepy and elegant, shocking and romantic, dreadful and rewarding, and delivers unexpected twists. It'll leave you longing for book two." (Lisa McMann, New York Times bestselling author of the WAKE trilogy and CRYER'S CROSS )

"Lauren DeStefano crafts an all too believable future. I loved the world, the romance, the writing -- exactly the kind of book I've been craving to read." (Carrie Ryan, New York Times bestselling author of THE FOREST OF HANDS AND TEETH )
