Mastering Atmosphere & Mood in Watercolor: The Critical Ingredients That Turn Paintings Into Art By Joseph Zbukvic

As Joseph Zbukvic explains, in order to set the mood in a composition, artists need to set their clocks--their watercolor clocks, that is. The watercolor clock is a simple, but ingenious teaching device Zbukvic created to show artists how to manipulate watercolor materials for dazzling, atmospheric effects.

The "clock" accompanies every visual example in this book, helping artists anticipate how the condition of the paper (wet, dry, moderate, etc.) will react to various watercolor mixes. Based on this teaching principle, Zbukvic guides artists through step-by-step demonstrations that clearly illustrate how to: identify a subject; plan a painting; control color and value; manipulate edges; add the right finishing touches.

With this book, artists can achieve a greater level of mastery with watercolor and deeper, richer paintings.

Edgar Villanueva:

As a scholar exactly feel bored in order to reading. If their teacher requested them to go to the library or even make summary for some reserve, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's soul or real their hobby. They just do what the instructor want, like asked to go to the library. They go to generally there but nothing reading significantly. Any students feel that looking at is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful images on there. Yeah, it is to be complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this period, many ways to get whatever we really wish for. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Mastering Atmosphere & Mood in Watercolor: The Critical Ingredients That Turn Paintings Into Art can make you experience more interested to read.
