The California Diary Of Captain John Sutter, From 1838 Through The 1849 Gold Rush By John Sutter

A look at the personal diary of Captain John Sutter, on whose land gold was first discovered in 1848. Deposited at the offices of the Argonaut, a California weekly newspaper, in 1878, it is written in Sutter's own hand and contains numerous misspellings, but it is extremely valuable first hand information on California as it existed in the placid days before gold was discovered, and the hectic days afterward. Sutter ultimately laments the fact gold was ever discovered on his property, as he had not seen one dime of revenue from it since that January day in 1848. John Fremont, Kit Carson, General Castro, Samuel Brannan, California pioneers Stockton, Folsom, Montgomery, Kearney, even the infamous Keesburg of the Donner Party tragedy, were all acquaintances of Sutter's. This dairy has not been published since 1878 and is largely unknown- that is until now!
