Editorial Review

About the Author

Marianne Rogerson was born in Vanuatu and grew up in Papua New Guinea where her British parents were based. She inherited her parents spirit of adventure and love for discovering new countries and cultures, and she has since lived in Scotland, Costa Rica, Spain, Portugal and now Singapore. Having explored Singapore extensively and hosted many visitors, she was fed up of people saying that there is nothing to do in Singapore except eat and shop . With this in mind, she decided to share all the fun and interesting things that she has discovered in this fantastic city.
