Editorial Review

Review

“The story Alterman tells is . . . worth restating given the strenuous . . . campaign by conservatives to rewrite the entire history of liberalism. . . . Alterman works hard to correct the record.” — New York Times Book Review

“Alterman’s magnum opus... All aspects of liberalism are surveyed, from the culture of Hollywood movies to the civil rights movement to intellectual debates.... In this way, Alterman’s book stands as the definitive work on its subject.” — San Francisco Chronicle

“What a relief it is...to read Eric Alterman’s superb new book, THE CAUSE: The Fight for American Liberalism From Franklin Roosevelt to Barack Obama. [I]f your goal is to learn about, and understand, one of this country’s most potent political forces, this book belongs in your hands.” — Boston Globe

“...an intellectual (and actual) history of liberalism that even [Lionel] Trilling would approve of...coherent and excellent...” — Daily Beast

“...an impressive history, with profiles of leaders both famous and unfamiliar, and detailing legislative and cultural battles that highlight the advancement of the cause. Readers interested in liberal politics and sociopolitical history will most appreciate the authors’ extensive research.” — Library Journal

“...an illuminating history of postwar politics, international relations, culture, and philosophy—all in one scrupulously researched volume.” — Publishers Weekly
