Zahn #3 By Patrick Fillion

These are strange days for ZAHN. Our hero awakens in an unfamiliar room, surrounded by men he believes he's never seen before. What's really odd is they all seem to think he's someone other than himself. The Son of Winter's memories slowly begin to return over time.

Flashback a few hours in time: CAULDRON is mortally wounded, and his aggressor, the traitorous JONAH is on the run. A desperate manhunt ensues, even as CAULDRON's life ebbs away. But as ZAHN closes in on JONAH, previously unseen forces intervene, all under the order of a mysterious mastermind the root of all of ZAHN's problems. Our heroic barbarian is subdued and carted off to meet his fate.

The Vampire BARUND is hot on ZAHN's trail, and hopes to free his friend from the clutches of his enemies, but Varda holds many strange, unencountered secrets, and some revelations may prove too great to prevail against. BARUND may well get the shock of his life.

Meanwhile, MEEZOK, UOGO, SELAR and LYRUS remain behind, and fall prey to a stealth attack. While they struggle to regain the upper hand and keep from being exterminated, ZAHN comes face to face with the truth of his past... and squares off against the one opponent he cannot defeat.
