Vampire bachelor Samson can't get it up anymore. Not even his shrink can help him. That changes when the lovely mortal auditor Delilah tumbles into his arms after a seemingly random attack. Suddenly there's nothing wrong with his hydraulics - that is, as long as Delilah is the woman in his arms.

His scruples about taking Delilah to bed vanish when his shrink suggests it's the only way to cure his problem. Thinking all he needs is one night with her, Samson indulges in a night of pleasure and passion.

However, another attack on Delilah and a dead body later, and Samson has his hands full: not only with trying to hide the fact he's a vampire, but also with finding out what secrets Delilah harbors for somebody to want her harm.

From the Inside Flap

I often get asked how I came up with a vampire who couldn't get it up anymore. I actually owe this to Tony Soprano - when I saw that a mobster could go to a shrink and bare his soul, I knew I could do the same with a vampire. It didn't take long for me to figure out why Samson needed a shrink: since vampires can't get sick, I needed to give him a psychological problem. So I decided that he had a mental block in his sex life, all due to a painful experience with a woman he was close to. And just like that, Samson, the vampire with ED was born.
